

“MORALS AND ENLIGHTENMENT ARE OUR PRIME NECESSITIES”

Simón Bolívar, Angostura, 1819 morals righteousness ethics principles values probity decency scruples rectitude equity justice legitimacy respect civility honesty equanimity integrity truthfulness trust cleanliness purity conscience honor decorum loyalty constancy fidelity civility kindness virtue shame enlightenment education instruction training study schooling knowledge erudition intelligence sageness wisdom excellence discernment sharpness reason ability masterliness talent inspiration capacity formation progress advancement development cultivation certainty understanding discrimination clarity judgement perception sensibility expressivity urbanity socialization

BUT WITHOUT LIBERTY THEY LOOSE THEIR VALUE liberty independence autonomy emancipation spontaneity will tolerance acceptance amplexness openness candor expressiveness coexistence equality citizenship guaranties confidence options rights self-determination sovereignty democracy manumission deliverance absolution value importance relevance usefulness sense validity purpose function reach weight repercussion significance effectiveness substance essence content size magnitude merit virtue yield interest advantage compensation benefit resonance repercussion transcendence forcefulness scope projection future

Interciencia